DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claims 1-11 being directed to information resided on a medium . Since the information do not provide any functional interrelationship to the medium to control the medium or to access information on the medium, or impart to any software and hardware structural components to provide certain function that is processed by computer , the information on the medium do not make them statutory. See MPEP 2100.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Miyasaka et al (5,991,503).

Regarding claim 1 , Miyasaka discloses a storage element 31 (Figs. 3-4 and 6B)) : a substrate (medium) ; and a data track disposed on the substrate, the data track comprising a plurality of data sectors, each of the data sectors being formatted in accordance with a first digital data standard and comprised of a control data portion and a payload data portion, each of the payload data portions including a plurality of data packets that represent a video program and are formatted in accordance with a digital television standard, wherein each payload data portion further includes an application header that has control information for allowing the plurality of data packets in the payload data portion to be filtered (extracted) on a picture by picture basis without decoding the video data in the plurality of data packets (column 8, lines 5-35, column 10, lines 30-60).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 12 and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Miyasaka et al in view of Song et al. (6,597,860)

Regarding claim 1, Miyasaka discloses a storage element 31 (Figs. 3-4 and 6B)) : a substrate; and a data track disposed on the substrate, the data track comprising a plurality of data sectors, each of the data sectors being formatted in accordance with a first digital data standard and comprised of a control data portion and a payload data portion, each of the payload data portions including a plurality of data packets that represent a video program and are formatted in accordance with a digital television standard, wherein each payload data portion further includes an application header that has control information for allowing the plurality of data packets in the payload data portion to be filtered (extracted) on a picture by picture basis without decoding the video data in the plurality of data packets (column 8, lines 5-35, column 10, lines 30-60).

Miyasaka fails to teach an encoder for outputting the second bit stream in accordance with the television standard.

Song teaches an apparatus for receiving and recording bit stream having a means for outputting stream data in accordance with a television standard (Fig. 1, column 8, line 42 to column 9, line 9).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill the art to modify Miyasaka with Son by using a outputting means as taught by Son as an additional means for outputting the second bit stream in accordance with the digital television standard .

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 13-21 and 23-31 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Kondo teaches apparatus for converting the DVD to a transport stream .
